

Recall Challenge

Click through the charts and kick start your brain!

Off the Charts

An 84 year old male is found with the following ECG on annual exam. He is stable and in no distress. What is the recommended treatment? Identify the rhythm.

What do you think?
Write down your answer.

7

6

5

4

3

2

Question 1

Off the Charts

A 59 year old male presents complaining of mild chest pain, an irregular pulse and a heart rate of 52. Identify the rhythm strip below.

What do you think?
Write down your answer.

Question 2

7

6

5

4

3

1

Off the Charts

What is the recommended treatment for a patient in a second degree type I heart block with a blood pressure of 74/40 mmHg and chest pain?

What do you think?
Write down your answer.

7

6

5

4

Question 3

2

1

Off the Charts

Does second degree type I or type II more likely represent an significant underlying pathology?

7

6

5

Question 4

3

2

1

What do you think?
Write down your answer.

Off the Charts

A 64 year old female presents after a syncopal episode hypotensive and bradycardic. After initial stabilization, what treatment is recommended for the rhythm below?

What do you think?
Write down your answer.

Question 5

7

6

4

3

2

1

Off the Charts

A 76 year old male presents hypotensive with a heart rate of 30. The nurse brings the ECG for interpretation. What is the rhythm?

What do you think?
Write down your answer.

7

Question 6

5

4

3

2

1

Off the Charts

A 58 year old male presents with atrial fibrillation at 150 bpm. He is given diltiazem in the ED and has now become bradycardic with long pauses. The diltiazem is stopped and the atrial fibrillation returns. Beta blocker therapy also leads to bradycardia and long pauses again.

What is the likely underlying condition?

Question 7

6

5

4

3

2

1

What do you think?
Write down your answer.

Recall Challenge

COMPLETED!